

Kiwanis Club President, Wife At Convention

Torrance Kiwanis club president Gerald Eastham and Mrs. Eastham will attend the 40th annual Convention of Kiwanis International at Cleveland, Ohio, June 26 through the 30th. Participants in the convention will hear addresses by such notables as Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Agriculture; A. D. P. Heeney, Canadian ambassador to the United States; and General Nathan F. Twining, Chief of Staff, United States Air Force.

Wednesday morning will be the highlight of the meeting, when officers of the coming year are elected. The new proxy will assume duties on Aug. 1. Also slated for Wednesday is the President's Reception and Ball, held in the evening. Band leader Ted Lewis and a company of professional actors will supply the entertainment for

Realtors to See Film On American Business

Members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors will hold their first dinner of the year at the Wayfarers Restaurant in Lomita, Friday, June 24, at 7 p.m. The festivities have been arranged by the women of the board.

A regular meeting is scheduled to follow the dinner. A will be a movie entitled, "It's Everybody's Business," arranged by the program chairman Bob Tolson.

the evening, Eastman announced.

Tuesday evening district dinners are another feature of the convention. Each of these will be a miniature convention banquet in itself.

Direction of the affair has been assumed by Jackson B. Raney, Indianapolis, Ind., educator, who is a vice president of Kiwanis International.

ALCOHOL ADDICTS

There are five times more men who are alcoholics than women. A typical victim is 35 to 45 years old, a skilled worker, is married, owns his own home and has two or three children.
